

LOMA LINDA UNIVERSITY
School of Allied Health Professions
Radiation Technology

Radiography Applicant Clinical Observation Form

Associate of Science in Medical Radiography

Entry-Level Bachelor of Science in Radiation Sciences

Completion of 8-Hours of Clinical Observation & 500-Word Reflective Essay

Clinical Observation (check one): ☐ LLUMC ☐ Other Hospital ☐ 8-hours Online Research

Supervisory Technologist or Clinical Preceptor:

The following applicant, _____, has applied to a radiography program at Loma Linda University (LLU).

As part of the application process, this prospective student is expected to observe a minimum of eight hours in a radiology department that includes a variety of modalities and procedures.

After the applicant has completed the clinical observation expectations, please complete the following information and return this form to the applicant.

Print Name: _____	Position: _____
Signature: _____	Date: _____
Facility Name: _____	Facility Phone: _____

Thank you for facilitating the clinical observation expectation for this applicant.

Sincerely,

Michael F. Iorio, PhD, MPA, RT(R) (CT) (ARRT) CRT
Program Director
Associate of Science in Medical Radiography and Entry-Level Bachelor of Science in Radiation Sciences
Department of Radiation Technology, Nichol Hall Room A829
Loma Linda, California 92350
Office (909) 558-4931 Ext. 47272 Fax (909) 558-7965
miorio@llu.edu

Applicant Attestation (please initial):

_____ I have completed eight hours of observation in a radiology department OR completed over eight hours of online research (e.g., videos, websites, articles, etc.) related to radiology departments and imaging modalities and procedures.

_____ I have written a 500-word reflective essay based on my clinical observation and/or online research, and this essay is written in my own words.

_____ If granted an interview, I will bring this completed form and the essay to the interview.